Class Description:

We will focus on Year 3 of the Tapestry of Grace Curriculum beginning with John Adams' presidency and ending with the Spanish-American War. Students will study U.S. Presidents, the Victorian Age, Westward Expansion, and the Civil War. Students will be exposed to quality literature relevant to history as well as reading maps of historical locations.

Curriculum & Supplies:

A Tapestry of Grace complete book list, including TOG Spools, history, and literature books, will be sent on or before May 1.

Supplies needed:

- 1-inch 3 ring binder with front pocket
- 5 ct index tab dividers
- Pencils, colored pencils, glue sticks, scissors.
- Any additional supplies will be sent in July.

Tests, Assignments, & Grades:

No formal tests or grades will be given. Students will complete worksheets and/or maps in class. Homework will mostly consist of reading but may also include additional worksheets or small projects. Students will make 1-2 small presentations during the year. Binder checks will be done at the end of each unit.

Teacher Bio & Contact Information:

We have been attending BHC for 6 years and it has been such a blessing to our family. I have been married to my husband, Peyton, for 14 years and he works at Samford University. We have three children, Brooke (6th grade), Tyler (4th grade), and Mae (1st grade) and we have homeschooled from the start. I graduated from Samford University with a degree in Family Studies and this will be my second-year teaching at BHC. I previously worked at Dawson Memorial Baptist Church in the Day School for 9 years. I'm looking forward to what God has in store for us at BHC this year!
