Class Description:

Tapestry of Grace Year 3 uncovers all the excitement and historical details of the nineteenth century! From all of our nation's earliest presidents to the Civil War, students will engage with history from a Biblical worldview. Not only will students enjoy the material we study, but will participate in fun and lively discussions each week.

Curriculum & Supplies:

A Tapestry of Grace complete book list, including TOG Spools, history, and literature books, will be sent on or before May 1.

Supplies include:

- A one inch binder and loose leaf paper
- 5 tab dividers

Tests, Assignments, & Grades:

Weekly homework assignments will be assigned each Thursday. History homework will always be assigned, and there will be an occasional literature assignment. Every homework assignment is worth 10 points. 4 Unit tests will be given in class throughout the year: 2 will be in the fall and 2 will be in the spring. Each test is worth 100 points. Students will be assigned a book report/presentation in the fall and a history paper/presentation in the spring. Map quizzes will be given periodically throughout the year.

Teacher Bio & Contact Information:

My name is Melissa Chappell, and I have had the privilege of teaching at Brook Hills Co-op for 6 years. I have been married to Alan for almost 20 years, and we have three children: Noah (16), Caroline (14), and Savannah (12). My family has been members at The Church of Brook Hills for 9 years, and we love serving our faith family in many ways. I enjoy sipping coffee with friends, reading historical fiction books, college sports (War Eagle!), and discovering new pizza joints.
