Class Description:

Tapestry of Grace Year 3 uncovers all the excitement and historical details of the nineteenth century! From all of our nation's earliest presidents to the Civil War, students will engage with history from a Biblical worldview. Not only will students enjoy the material we study, but will participate in fun and lively discussions each week.

Curriculum & Supplies:

A Tapestry of Grace complete book list, including TOG Spools, history, and literature books, will be sent on or before May 1.

Supplies include:

- A one inch binder and loose leaf paper
- 5 tab dividers

Tests, Assignments, & Grades:

Weekly homework assignments will be assigned each Thursday. History homework will always be assigned, and there will be an occasional literature assignment. Every homework assignment is worth 10 points. 4 Unit tests will be given in class throughout the year: 2 will be in the fall and 2 will be in the spring. Each test is worth 100 points. Students will be assigned two history papers with presentations (one per semester.) Map quizzes will be given periodically throughout the year.

Teacher Bio & Contact Information:

My name is Melissa Chappell, and I have had the privilege of teaching at Brook Hills Co-op for 6 years. I have been married to Alan for almost 20 years, and we have three children: Noah (16), Caroline (14), and Savannah (12). My family have been members at The Church of Brook Hills for 9 years, and we love serving our faith family in many ways. I enjoy sipping coffee with friends, reading historical fiction books, college sports (War Eagle!), and discovering new pizza joints.
