

Excelsior's Mission Statement

Excelsior Homeschooling Cooperative is a Christ-centered learning experience endeavoring to promote excellence among participating students and coordinate the gifts and skills of Christian parents for the glory of God and well-being of its students. Excelsior offers a full range of topics and activities with the goal of maturing our children in Christ-likeness and cultivating productive servants for the advancement of God's kingdom. The participating families are comprised of a diversity of social, economic, and church backgrounds.
